PORTLAND MAN INDICTED IN CONNECTION WITH ROBBERY, KIDNAPPING

(PORTLAND) – Today, Multnomah County District Attorney Rod Underhill announced a four-count indictment against a 42-year-old man in connection with an attempted rape, kidnapping and robbery investigation.

On April 3, 2018, a Multnomah County grand jury indicted Randy Wayne Bunch with one count each of first-degree kidnapping, first-degree burglary, second-degree robbery, and attempted first-degree rape.

According to court documents filed in Multnomah County Circuit Court, on October 6, 2017, around 7:00 p.m., a woman was working at a cell phone store in the 1400 block of North Tomahawk Island Drive when a man, later identified as the defendant, walked into the business.

According to the probable cause affidavit, the defendant stood up, stuck his hand in his sweatshirt like he had a weapon and said, "I have a gun, take me to the back room." The employee was afraid that the defendant had a gun and that he was going to shoot her.

According to the affidavit, the defendant closed the door behind them, cornered the employee in the back of the office and told her to remove her clothes.

As the defendant was leaving the office, it is alleged that he grabbed an electronic tablet that has a value of $2,000.

Bunch appeared before Judge Susie L. Norby on April 5, 2018 and was arraigned on the indictment. His next court appearance is scheduled for May 18, 2018.

Media: A copy of the probable cause affidavit and indictment filed in this case can be obtained through the Oregon eCourt Case Information (OECI) system under case number 18CR21057. A booking photo is available through the Multnomah County Sheriff's Office.
