FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
FEBRUARY 22, 2019

Grand Jury returns not true bill decision in January 6, 2019 fatal officer involved shooting

Today, Multnomah County District Attorney Rod Underhill announced that upon the conclusion of testimony, a grand jury returned a not true bill regarding the use of force by a Portland Police Bureau (PPB) officer that resulted in the death of 36-year-old Andre Gladen.

The grand jury's not true bill decision means they have determined no criminal prosecution is warranted, and that the use of deadly force by PPB Officer Consider Vosu was a lawful act of self-defense and/or defense of a third person, pursuant to Oregon law.

This investigation started on January 6, 2019 at approximately 2 p.m. when law enforcement responded to the report that a person, later identified as Mr. Gladen, arrived at a residence in the 9600 block of Southeast Market Street and refused to leave the property.

A copy of the information previously released in this case from the Portland Police Bureau can be obtained by clicking here.

The grand jurors who reviewed this case are Multnomah County community members. Each grand juror was selected by Multnomah County's Chief Criminal Judge from the regularly scheduled empaneled jury pool. This is a process set by Oregon's Constitution.

Like in the past, the grand jury proceedings in this case were recorded, in accordance to ORS 132.260.

Pursuant to ORS 132.270, the Multnomah County District Attorney's Office will file a motion with the court and request that the court release a transcript of the grand jury proceedings for public review.

Officer Vosu and/or his attorney has 10 days, upon the State filing its request, to move the court for a protective order regarding the release of the transcript or a portion of the transcript.

It shall be up to the Multnomah County Circuit Court Presiding Judge to determine if the motion to release the transcript will be granted.

The Multnomah County District Attorney's Office cannot comment any further on this case at this time.
