Multnomah County Grand Jury Returns New Indictment in State of Oregon v. Luis Trybom

Multnomah County District Attorney Rod Underhill announced today a grand jury returned an indictment against 39-year-old Luis Trybom.

The indictment alleges Trybom knowingly and unlawfully committed sex crimes involving two separate female victims between September and October 2015.

The indictment filed under case number 18CR46718 charges the defendant with four counts of using a child in a display of sexually explicit conduct. Furthermore, the indictment alleges one count of sexual abuse in the second degree and three counts of sexual abuse in the third degree. The allegations in counts 1-4 involve a separate victim than the crimes alleged in counts 5-8 of the indictment.

Trybom is scheduled to be arraigned on this indictment Monday July 16, 2018 at the Multnomah County Justice Center.

Copies of the indictment and court scheduling information can be obtained using the Oregon eCourt Case Information (OECI) system.

This is an ongoing investigation that involves the Portland Police Bureau Detective Division's Sex Crimes Unit. As such, no additional comments can be made.

Anyone with information on this case is asked to contact Portland Police Detective Nathan Sheppard at 503-823-3886, nathan.sheppard@portlandoregon.gov
