Babysitter accused of sexually abusing a child

Today, Multnomah County District Attorney Rod Underhill announced that a grand jury returned a 43-count indictment against 33-year-old Stacy Lee Curtiss.

As previously released by the Multnomah County District Attorney's Office, Curtiss is in-custody pending trial on an indictment, which was filed on January 25, 2019. That indictment charges Curtiss with 10 counts of encouraging child sexual abuse in the first degree, 14 counts of encouraging child sexual abuse in the second degree and one count of encouraging the sexual assault of an animal. Additional details on that case can be obtained by clicking here.

In the new 43-count indictment, Curtiss is charged with five counts of sexual abuse in the first degree, seven counts of unlawful sexual penetration in the first degree, three counts of using a child in a display of sexually explicit conduct and 22 counts of encouraging child sexual abuse in the second degree.

It is alleged in court documents filed April 23, 2019 that between the years of 2014 and 2019, Curtiss unlawfully and knowingly subjected a child, who was under the age of 12, to sexual contact and that he knowingly engaged in sexual intercourse with the child on multiple occasions.

Additionally, it is alleged that Curtiss, in 2013, unlawfully and knowingly compelled the child to engage in sexually explicit conduct that was recorded. Curtiss is also accused of unlawfully and knowingly, and for the purpose of arousing his sexual desires, accessing, with intent, child pornography on multiple occasions.

During the investigation into the alleged conduct of Curtiss, law enforcement learned that he was the victim's babysitter and that he potentially the babysitter of other children in Multnomah County.

The victim and Curtiss are not related.

Curtiss was arraigned on April 24, 2019 in Multnomah County Circuit Court. His next court date is scheduled for June 4, 2019.

This remains ongoing investigation and as such, no additional information shall be released by the Multnomah County District Attorney's Office.

An indictment is only an accusation of a crime. Curtiss is innocent unless and until proven guilty.
